"Share the Hope"

VOL. LIX, NO. 2

WISMAR'S WISDOM

Dear Members and Friends of Holy Cross,

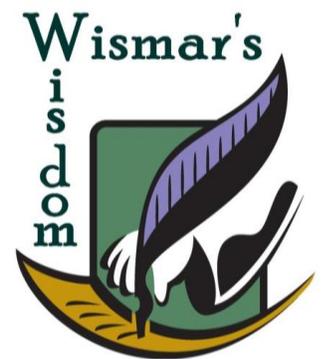

Our journey through the entirety of Holy Scripture is underway! I hope you have been able to be a part of it thus far through worship attendance, Bible study participation, viewing my sermons online (<http://holycrosstrumbull.org/sermons/>), being a part of our "Google Hangout" option on Tuesday evening, or by following my daily blog (<http://holycrosstrumbull.org/pastors-blog/>). As this newsletter goes to print, we will be finishing up our walk through the Book of Genesis and now, through the month of October, we will journey through the rest of the Books of Moses. The first five books of the Bible – Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers and Deuteronomy – are attributed to the prophet Moses and are also often referred to as the Pentateuch, which means "the five-fold book." They are also sometimes referred to as the Torah or "Law of Moses." The many ways in which they are named aside, the key thing I would like to share with you here are the many blessings that await you when you take the time to read them, and I would like to point out a few of the blessings you will find in each of these first five books, as follows:

Genesis lays the foundation for all the events and doctrines of Holy Scripture. Learning more about its characters and events will prepare you for a much broader understanding of God's ways with humankind. Through Genesis, Moses emphasizes that these records apply not simply to Israel, but all nations and families of the earth. We can see in the patriarchs' weaknesses, struggles and joys that mirror our families today. The Lord, through promise and faith, makes all the difference for the patriarchs, and He will likewise bless and lead you.

Exodus describes the central redemptive event of the Old Testament. Through the blood of the Passover lambs, the Lord delivered His people from slavery. This redemption becomes the most mentioned event of Israelite history. Through the blood of the covenant, the Lord consecrated Israel as a kingdom of priests. He directed the building of the tabernacle as a place of worship and forgiveness. Moses and the elders of Israel also enjoyed the splendor of seeing God and learning the meaning of His name, Yahweh. They saw that God is not only holy, but also merciful and patient. He remembers His people and His promises to their forefathers for thousands of generations. As you read Exodus, look for these important themes. See that the Lord still leads His people through the prophet like Moses and redeems you by the blood of "the Lamb of God," Jesus.

As you read through the book of Leviticus, reflect on the detail and deep care with which God teaches the people about faithful, orderly worship. Though worship is chiefly a matter of faith and sincere repentance, God's people must not regard the outward expressions of worship as mere formalism; our outward actions reveal our hearts. Genuine confession of faith manifests itself in thought, word and deed. Note especially the four greatest themes of Leviticus: cleansing, atonement, rest and redemption. These themes foreshadow Jesus' sacrifice on the cross, His peace, and the freedom He grants us in the Gospel. Seeing these broad themes allows one to understand that Leviticus is truly about the chief article of the Christian faith: justification through Christ's blood.

As you read Numbers, reflect on how God repeatedly speaks His word of law and promise to the people while sustaining them in the wilderness. Each event illustrates His fatherly discipline and gracious care for a wayward, rebellious people. Numbers leaves the reader hanging, anticipating something greater because the book ends on Jordan's East Bank, just shy of the Promised Land. While reading Numbers, pray for the Lord to discipline and sustain you in the service of His kingdom. Also, anticipate how He prepares something greater for you, any eternal homeland in heaven to be revealed when Christ returns.

And in the book of Deuteronomy, although many passages in it describes civil and ceremonial laws for Old Testament Israel, take special note of how Moses emphasizes the Lord's love and election of His people, which extends to believers today. Deuteronomy shows you the heart of God: His wrath and His mercy.

As you read and study the Books of Moses, certainly look for the Law they proclaim, but recognize also how they proclaim the encouragement, hope and promise of the Gospel, as well. God's richest blessings as you continue to journey through His Word!

See you in Worship!

CHRISTMAS-AT-SEA

Social Ministry collecting donations for seafarers during October – project kicks off October 4!

For the third year we will be participating in the Seafarers and International House Christmas-at-Sea project.

Nearly all of us ashore look forward to Christmas with family and friends. For nearly all seafarers, Christmas will be a lonely day in the middle of an ocean, without family or friends.

You could bring a little joy to these seafarers by filling Christmas-at-Sea satchels with gifts for Port Chaplain Ruth Setaro to deliver to ships in either New Haven or New London before their merchant ships head out to sea in December.

The joy your Christmas-at-Sea satchel brings to a seafarer will be matched by your own joy of the true meaning of Christmas. Please purchase one, two or fill a satchel with these items:

- One sweatshirt – hooded or unhooded (size L-XL)
- Three pairs of socks – thermal or white gym
- One casual pullover T-shirt (size M-L)
- One knit winter cap
- One can of nuts or large bar of chocolate
- A Christmas card from you!

You pick the colors, styles and brands you wish, but please no substitutions from the list. The Christmas-at-Sea satchels should be comparable for each member of the crew.

Pick a card from the poster in the narthex and check out the Christmas-at-Sea display case.

DORCAS GUILD

Ladies acknowledged by St. Vincent's Hospital

The ladies of our Dorcas Guild received some publicity for the work they do in the June-July edition of "The Update," a newsletter of St. Vincent's Health Services. In an article titled, "Prayer Shawls: Handmade Love and Comfort," both Anita Schoch and Myrtle Anderson were pictured with Jazmin Figueroa-Bodine, MD, clinical research coordinator at St. Vincent's Elizabeth M. Pfriem SWIM Center for Cancer Care. In the photo Ms. Figueroa-Bodine is accepting prayer shawls that Anita and Myrtle brought to St. Vincent's, all made by the ladies of our Dorcas Guild. COMFORT DOG MINISTRY

Comfort Dog Leah welcomed to Connecticut and Immanuel Lutheran-Danbury

Sunday, September 6, was designated Comfort Dogs Weekend at Immanuel Lutheran-Danbury.

From the moment we walked through the door at Immanuel Lutheran, there was excitement in the air. We were greeted by both Immanuel's and Christ the King (Newtown) Lutheran's comfort dog teams—dogs, caregivers and handlers. In fact, there were a total of 10 dogs to greet us from across the U.S. Just having these dogs in your presence makes one smile, but this day was special because Immanuel Lutheran introduced the newest member of Connecticut's comfort dog team—her name is Leah. And, our own Cindy Ciccio is one of Leah's trained and certified handlers! The "Passing of the Leash" ceremony on September 6 was a capstone to a very busy week of training and service for Cindy, Leah and the other new handlers and dogs.

Tim Hetzner, President, Lutheran Church Charities (LCC) was a guest speaker at the event and he offered an eloquent (and, often entertaining) explanation of the Holy Gospel according to St. John; Chapter 4—the story of Jesus and the Samaritan woman at the well. Naturally, he tied the good and comforting works of the Comfort Dog Ministry to the story of Jesus and the Samaritan.

Besides myself, Kendra Norman, Michele and Rick Van Wart, and Cindy's family—husband Joey, daughters Nicole and Ashley, and grandson Dominic, were on hand to support Cindy and this amazing ministry. A lovely picnic, complete with delicious "doggy biscuits" (a.k.a. cookies—shaped like dog bones) was held following the ceremony.

Leah now joins Addie as a Comfort Dog at Immanuel Lutheran. Addie had such a busy schedule with weekly visits to Sandy Hook Elementary, Immanuel Lutheran School (where our own Pastor Wismar once was a teacher), the Greater Danbury Women's Center, shut-ins, Hospice, and many other service calls, that Immanuel Lutheran made a commitment to invest in this important ministry—thereby recruiting a second dog.

LCC K-9 Comfort Dogs are purebred Golden Retrievers, AKC registered, and must pass the AKC Good Citizenship Test. They have been trained to the level of a service dog. LCC K-9 Comfort Dogs and their handlers are also certified by LCC. The cost to acquire a Comfort Dog is $12,000; however, LCC spends approximately $50,000 in training each dog.

Cindy and Leah's mission is to expand the work of the Comfort Dog Ministry beyond the greater Danbury area—east into Fairfield and New Haven counties...or wherever there is a need in the state (hospital and veterans ministry, college outreach, nursing homes, etc...). They will also be deployed to national and regional crises. Each time Cindy takes Leah out to a school or community in crisis, they will provide comfort and share the love of Christ. What a blessing for all!

There is a need for Ministry Partners to accompany Cindy and Leah when deployed to the community. A Ministry Partner's responsibility is to talk with people and to hand out Leah's business cards. This valuable part of the Comfort Dog Ministry will allow the handler to focus on the dog. If interested, please contact Cindy at CLC717@gmail.com.

Cindy will be with Leah at our upcoming Breakfast & Artists event on Saturday morning, October 31. The guest speaker will be Jen Marr from Immanuel Lutheran and Club Comfort. NOTE THE NEW DATE for the B&A event; this date change allows Cindy and Leah to attend the Vicki Soto Memorial 5K run/walk event held in Vicki's hometown of Stratford. Several of Vicki's students, family and friends are expected to attend. Let's all keep Cindy and Leah in our prayers as they set out in this important ministry.

Smile and say got comfort?!

COMMUNITY SUPPER

Serve the Lord by serving the needy a welcome meal

It was the first day of September as Barbara White and Val Huydic got busy buttering bread at the monthly St. John's Community Supper. Meanwhile, Rich Huydic got the pasta boiling and hams in the oven. Diane Hintz Schyhol and Maria Nocerrino cut cake, made coffee, wrapped plastic ware into napkins and cooled water, grape juice and fruit cups. Simultaneously, Helen Harper and Lorraine Finch, prepared and put the final touches on the macaroni and cheese with Rich....and cooking was done in record time! Someone had donated a bag of homegrown Roma tomatoes. Val and Barbara sliced those as a special treat for the recipients. Then Sherry Duff and Cindy Ciccio arrived early to chat and carve the hams while Anna Mae Berger poured grape juice. They were assisted by Savi Semon, Jim Leslie and Pastor Wismar to serve 108 meals. Beside us, there were 13 volunteers following Philippians 2:4: "Let each of you look out not only for his own interests, but also for the interests of others." Not everyone can be present to volunteer. In addition to these volunteers are the parishioners who donate money to help cover purchasing the ingredients for this meal and pray for the St. John's Community Supper.

As you know, Holy Cross is responsible for buying the food, preparing and serving the meal on the first Tuesday of the month at St. John's Episcopal. The next community supper for which Holy Cross is responsible for cooking and serving is on Tuesday, October 6. If you can volunteer your time, please put your name on the sheet found on the narthex table.

PRESIDENT'S JOURNAL

It's a privilege to serve God through YOUR church, Holy Cross!

Last month I wrote about the value of being a member of a congregation. Active membership offers great reward, but also comes with responsibility. Congregations are led by a shepherd – our Pastor – as a spiritual leader and guide. However, the organizational work of a church, and its congregation, requires the voluntary efforts of its members.

We are fortunate within the LCMS in that our congregation owns our church building and property. However, with that comes the responsibility for it. We are not a tenant, but a “homeowner.” And not unlike most congregations, we tend to follow the 20/80 rule – 20 percent of our members do 80 percent of the work, i.e., programs, support, upkeep, administration, etc.

That makes me wonder about the 80 percent who are doing 20 percent of the work. Where, or what, is their sense of responsibility to Holy Cross? And that's when I had my aha moment.

It's not about a sense of responsibility; instead it's about being privileged! God has called us to do the work of His church – to support the spreading of the Gospel through our programs, and through our organizational and physical structures. It is not a responsibility, but instead a privilege to serve the Lord through Holy Cross! That privilege leads us to taking responsibility.

What about you and your family members? How do you exercise your Christian privilege? Are you part of the 20 percent doing the work, or part of the 80 percent? Here's one way to serve: several positions on the Board of Directors are open or up for election this January. In particular, we are looking for directors of discipleship, evangelism and social ministry. If you are interested, speak with Michele Van Wart. But there are many other ways, too. Are you heeding your call? Are you saying, in the words of the great hymn refrain, “Here I am, Lord. It is I, Lord. I have heard you calling.....”?

In His Service,

---KERRY GEFFERT

Holy Cross President
